

East Kimberley

Waringarri Art & Culture Tours

Waringarri Aboriginal Arts was established in the early 1980s by senior cultural leaders of the East Kimberley as a place for art and culture while also supporting economic aspirations for artists and their community.

Situated in the heart of Miriwoong Country, in Kununurra, the East Kimberley, the art centre is owned and operated by the Miriwoong community. It is the first Indigenous owned art centre established in Western Australia and one of the oldest continuously operating art centres in Australia.

Waringarri Arts specialises in ochre paintings, artefacts, sculptures, limited edition prints, engraved boab nuts, ceramics and textiles.

"[The guides were] very generous in sharing their knowledge of country, uses and tasting of local flora and giving us background in local history... the most valuable part of the tour was being able to sit down and have an honest yarn... I believe it is tours like this are invaluable in sharing knowledge and a more balanced view of local history." – Kerry S Tripadvisor

"The best Indigenous cultural tour I have done, great guides, amazing country. Fantastic to see the pride in their history and culture." – Survey Monkey
